Letter from Page.

[Correspondence Alexandria Gazette.] LURAY, VA., Feb. 20 .- Renewed efforts are making to bring the members of the late banking firm of Rosenbarger, Spindle & Co. to just'ce and punishment. Officers from Warrenton arrested Mr. Shirley at Newmarket yesterday and brought him here, where Russel Rosenberger was thought to be in concealment. Search failed to find him, and though he was known to be on his way to this place, a telegram sent by friends appried him of the danger, and it is supposed he left the train at Riverton. Mr. Sairley is the moneyed man of this firm. He was taken to Warrenton on the early train tole morning. There seems to be a degged determination to have these parties panished.

The Episcopal Convocation, which has been in session here for three days, ad-journed last night. There were a dezen ministers in attendance, a fine looking body of young men, and their meeting here was one of interest and well attended.

A new feature of the grip has shone itself in the cases of several patients in this neighborhood-that of acct; dementia or craziness—but the strack passes off, leaving no serious result mentally.

The personal property saved from the Luray Inn will be sold at auction next week. No move is being made towards the rebuilding of this hotel. There are but few persons coming to the cave now, and the difference in this regard to the large numbers that once came is very

A Crank or Worse.

A good looking, middle aged man, weara blue coat and vest with blg brass buttons, was arrested in New York on Saturday. He was going from house to house presenting this letter:

Christian Friends: —I have had a good position, but, like many others, have had pains, and thus forced to give up work and devote my time to relieving the distress of others. Please buy my

I toretold and caused the Johnstown flood, famine in Ohio two years ago and the recent Russian famine. I have only to raise my hand now to cause the rain not to fall on the city of New York burn. This I will do if you venture to lay a band upon me." But the policeman took nim to be Yorkville Police Court. He said to Justice Hogan:

"I sau o se to represent God, but in order o make a herez I sell toosbache cure, &s. I have fore old all the great events of recent times."

Be sout his name is Malachi J. Noland, .-five years old and he lives at No 160 Park Row. He wors a badge in-

Bones or Mastodors .- If the pack trai', for the construction of which the people of Alaska are praying, is opened across the coast range into the valley of the Yukon river, that basin will be an interesting locality for scientific research. There is no doubt that the gold placer diggings are as rich as any in America, a though the extreme difficuit; of access prevents development of them. Silver-lead ores have been found, and within a year E. J. Glove and Lieut. Frederick Schwatks have discovered abundant evidence that copper exists in large

There are also extensive fossil deposits like those which have been unearthed dur-ing the last century in northern Russia and Siberla. Joseph Goldsmith, an unusually intelligent miner who has spert several years in prospecting along the Yukon, is now in Scattle, Wash, and he says that he has found numerous traces of the mastedon or mammoth. At places where the waters have cut into the banks, or have ebbed away from shoals, huge bones are bare. Now and then the explorer will come upon big heaps of the fossils.

"At one point," Mr. Goldsmith said,
"about 1,500 miles from the mouth of the Yukon, is a perpendicular bank, from which bones are sticking out. One curling tusk, not unlike that of an elephant, is exposed for a length of eix feet, and the diameter at the visible base is six or eight inches. At the visible base is six or eight inches. At certain epois the number of bones and tusks makes one believe that whole herds of mastodone, or whatever the animals were, have perished from some unknown cause."
